

Payroll Talk

February 2017

The Organization for Payroll Professionals

---

Here it is! Your long awaited Newsletter! Hope everyone survived another year end and is recharged and ready for whatever 2017 brings!

Rest assured your PPK Officers have hit the ground running, here's our line-up this year:

Loretta Boydston, President

Tim Wallen, Vice-President

Pam Beyers, Past-President

Jaime Rivera, Treasurer

Amy Kirk, Secretary

Carolyn Davis, Education Coordinator

Michele Stephens, Event Coordinator

Strong line-up indeed, but it takes a village so I'm very excited to recognize the following folks, who have stepped forward to volunteer their time in furthering our chapter.

- John Nix
- Debbie Coover
- Marilyn Sainlar
- Karen Maxfield
- Tina Faircloth
- Vickie Medlock

Wanna piece of the action? Well, there's always room for more ideas, skills, and time. Loretta participated in the APA Chapter Leadership Summit last October and came back with some fabulous ideas for our chapter. Social Media marketing is the big push so if you are passionate about Twitter, WE NEED YOU! Contact Loretta for more information.

Have you heard about the 2017 PPK Conference? As Loretta announced at our February meeting, the Conference will be held on August 18th at Audubon Country Club and will be an all-day event! The past few years have been wildly successful and we are pumped to kick it up another notch this year! So stay-tuned for more details and mark your calendars, 'cause you don't want to miss this one!

So what's on tap for March besides basketball mania? Our next meeting is on Friday, March 17th and our speaker is Scott Gasser, he's the director of the Division of Security & Compliance at the Department of Worker's Claims. He will bring along an investigator to answer questions and share worksite visit experiences.

Watch for the SignUp Genius Email in a couple of weeks and we'll be looking for your bright, smiling faces, sporting your finest shamrock green duds!
